(B.) To allow Plaintiff the ability to receive prepackaged Halaal meals from the following Islamic/Halaal Vendor: Halalco Books (155 Hillwood Avenue, Falls Church, Virginia 22046) or in the alternate the Plaintiff be allowed to be approved and provided an actual Halaal diet by Food Service at Charles Bass Correctional Complex (and subsequently any other institution in which the Plaintiff may be transferred pending the disposition of the actual case) consisting of the following: (1) Fish, Tuna Salad, Peanut Butter and Vegetable Burgers in the place of the main protein item (No Chicken Patties, Turkey Ham, Turkey, Bologna, Polish Sausage, Chuckwagon Patty, Sausage, Hot Dogs, Corn Dogs, etc. at all); (2) Two (2) Fruits (Apples, Oranges, Bananas, Sliced Peaches, Sliced Pears, etc.); (3) Two (2) Vegetables and (4) Bread with every meal due to the fact that the so-called Halaal Menu that is currently in affect consists of nothing more than alternatives that are located as designated alternatives on the regular Master Menu and still includes ingredients that are considered as being Haraam (prohibited/forbidden); which is the basis of the Plaintiff's actual complaint; and

(C.) To allow the Plaintiff to be provided Halaal food products during the Holy month of Ramadaan and at the conclusion of the Holy month of Ramadaan that according to the tenets of al-Islam instead of forcing the Plaintiff to eat of the "feast" meal from a generalized menu which also consists of the Haraam food ingredients which are the underlying basis for the actual complaint.
